The centennial period of the Perry celebration will extend from July 4 to Oct. 5, 1913, the latter date being the 190th anniversary of the battle of the Thames, with the 160th anniversary of Perry's victory on Dec. 19, centralized at Put-in-Bey, It is proposed to make Sept. 10 a logal holiday in Rhode Island for 1913, in commemoration of Perry's victory. ation of Perry's victory, Rhode Island has taken commendable part in subscribing to the more than half a million dollars appropriated by state legislative bodies to the erecstate lagislative bodies to the erection of the Perry memorial, the celebration of which is under the austices of the national government. This state is represented on the Interstate Baard of the Perry's Victory Centennial commissioness by John P. Samborn of Memori, Louis W. Arnold of Westerly, Summer Movry of Peacedale, Henry E. Davis of Woonsocket and Harry Cutler of Providence.

While the rising of the Pawcatuck rivur by reason of the continuous rain caused more or less damage to some properties along its banks, none has been reported of serious consequence and only the expected results from the semi-occasional freshet materialized. Sydney Alfred Chapman, of Wester-ly, aged 63, died Monday morning, at his home in the section known as District No. 6. He was born in the old Chapman homestead and always resided within the borders of the town. At the age of seventeen he began the work of stoneoutting and was actively engaged in that trade up to three years ago. He contracted the disease known locally as stoneoutters' consumption, caused by the inhalation of granite dust. Mr. Chapman has served as a member of the town council and three years ago received the appoint-ment of forest fire warden for the town of Westerly and retained that office until his death,
